

*Notes: Site and trail easements are not marked. The site easement is generally located at the back of the small bay shown on map. The trail easement follows the east bank of Alapah Creek until reaching National Park Service boundary.

This visual depiction was created by ASRC and is only intended to be a general reference to aid area users.